

Dulaty University in the QS Asia University Rankings 2025

The advancement of Kazakhstani universities in global university rankings is one of the key priorities of state policy in higher education.

On November 6, 2024, QS Quacquarelli Symonds announced the results of the regional QS Asia University Rankings 2025. The factors influencing the QS Asia regional ranking include: academic reputation; employer reputation; faculty-to-student ratio; international research network; citations per publication and faculty research output; academic qualifications of staff; proportion of international faculty; proportion of international students; student intake rate; and student mobility rate.

M. Kh. Dulaty Taraz University participated in the Asian university rankings and was ranked in the 601–620 range. Thus, Dulaty University improved its position by 30 places compared to last year's results. This is a significant achievement, as the QS Asia Rankings include 1,128 higher education institutions from countries such as Japan, India, China, Singapore, South Korea, Hong Kong, Malaysia, and Taiwan.
